Stabbed to Beath. A WHITE MAN BRUTALLY MURDERED BY A

NEGRO NEAR NEWPORT NEWS-THE MUR-NEGRO NEAR NEWFORT NEWS THE DERRE IN JAIL.

FORTERSS MONROR, December 6.—Particulars received of the murder of William Selater last Friday evening four miles north of Newport News represent that the affair grew out of a dispute between decased and a colored man named William Allen, who was employed by two brothers of the name of Keily, occupying a part of Selater's house. Selater wanted to ride in a conveyance owned by the Kellys and drawn by Allen's mule. There had been some previous trouble between Selater and Allen in regard to an anchor which Selater had lost, and which he found in a boat belonging to Allen, when hard words passed between the men, in which it is said Allen threatened to "let daylight" through Selater the first chance he got. He refused Selater's request to let him ride home with the Kelly brothers on the evening of the affray, and when he reached his house the quarrel when he reached his house the quarrel was renewed. Mrs. Kelly heard a noise, and shortly after saw Allen strike Sclater, who then called him "a black thief." Allen then knocked him down and companying chaking him. down and commenced choking him. It was with difficulty be could be torn from his victim. As Sciater did not get up, it was thought he had fainted, and he was carried into the house, when blood was found upon his clothing. An examination was made, and three cuts were discovered— one back of the left shoulder, which seems to have glanced upwards and cut a gash in the head behind the ear, and two others, one of which went through the lung, and the other through the heart, the latter killing him instantly. Sclater was a slim, delicate man, and always hore a good reconstitute. The Kelly headhers are good reputation. The Kelly brothers segood reputation. The Keny brothers secured the negro Allen, who seems to have made no effort to escape. He denied the cutting, and had evidently thrown away his knife, as it could not be found. He was taken to jail at Warwick Courthouse, where he is now confined. Selater was about thirty years of age, and married. His two brothers are engaged in the drug business at Hampton, Va.
